About this boat

Maris Stella is a French unsinkable ship. Design in the 80's, it was made to navigate in extreme waters. Its well-preserved interior makes it charming to enjoy breakfast. Two double beds and two single sofas are more than enough for the tree people to enjoy the boat swings while you sleep. It is an open space where the Captain proposes a real contact with the experience of sailing enjoying nature, diving as well as swimming in the transparent waters of the anchorages. You will be delighted with a fresh Mediterranean breakfast and some fruits, nuts and drinks while you sail. A Greek tavern will be the goal for dinner. But it is always possible to cock on board. Sporades is for me the most Greek island, also gree...
