About this boat

Storebro Royal Cruiser 475 Commander The Storebro 475 Commander is one of the most admired flybridge yachts ever built in Sweden—classic craftsmanship, safe seakeeping, and a thoughtfully designed layout. This particular example is very well maintained and has been updated with extensive improvements in recent years, making it an unusually complete option on the market. At just over 14 meters in length, the 475 Commander offers generous space both inside and out. The aft deck is level with the saloon, creating a social and open connection between indoor and outdoor areas. It provides a comfortable, sheltered seating area with easy access to both the galley and saloon. An internal staircase leads to the flybridg...
