About this boat

The Predator 61 was certainly an iconic model in Sunseeker's past, and highlighted the company's flair for producing prolific sports cruisers. With a large open cockpit, garage and hydraulic platform the boat is certainly well-equipped for fun, and the large sunbathing areas aft and on the bow allow for relaxing sun worshipping whether at anchor or underway. There is a large retracting sunroof above the forward area of the cockpit so the helm area really feels like you are driving in the open air, and allows the cockpit to be flooded with natural light. "MILLENNIUM" is a lovely example of a very well maintained boat. She is fitted with numerous extras and the actual owners has done a lot of works Located in Sic...
