About this boat

New to the market! Highly specified 2013 Sunseeker San Remo 485 Overview The Sunseeker San Remo 485 is a striking hardtop sports cruiser, introduced as the successor to the ever-popular Portofino 48. Powered by twin Volvo Penta IPS engines with joystick control and Dynamic Positioning System (DPS). This particular example, La Vida, stands out for her exceptional condition throughout for her age. She presents beautifully across both interior and exterior spaces and is a clear credit to her current ownership and professional management. Highly specified and continually upgraded, she benefits from a long list of recent improvements including upgraded navigation systems, Humphree interceptor stabilisers, thermal im...
