About this boat

The Float Fund fits up to 9 passengers and is ready to make your crew's Lake Washington day exactly what it should be — easy, fun, and memorable. Wide and stable by design, this 18-foot Party Barge was built for groups who want to actually enjoy themselves: swimming, cruising, cold drinks in hand, nobody white-knuckling the railing. Crank up the Bluetooth stereo, drop the swim ladder, and pull out the wakeboard if anyone's feeling bold. Alcohol is welcome — glass bottles included — and kids under 12 are a yes; life jackets are provided for the little ones. There's no security deposit, but fuel costs will be added to the end of your trip. First time on the water? No problem. You'll get a full walkthrough before...
