About this boat

Launet is a rare 55-foot custom-built cruising and racing sloop, designed by Daniel Tortarolo and built in France in 1990. Inspired by the same design philosophy as renowned Whitbread offshore racers such as L'Esprit d'Équipe II, she combines a fast, performance-oriented hull with a strong steel structure, delivering both speed and reliability for bluewater cruising. A comprehensive refit completed in 2021, together with a carbon mast and rigging upgrade by Axxon Composites, significantly improved her sailing performance and efficiency. Premium Harken deck hardware and Navtec hydraulic systems provide accurate and responsive sail handling in a wide range of conditions. Equipped with a comp...
