About this boat

This is a rigid inflatable boat built for performance on the Tagus and along the Atlantic coastline stretching toward Cascais. Seating up to 12 guests in jockey-style seats, the PT-850 moves with real power, and having a crew on board means you focus entirely on the water and the scenery around you. The route takes you past Lisbon's riverside landmarks or out along the coast, depending on what you're after. The crew speaks multiple languages and knows these waters well, so the experience tends to feel less like a tour and more like going out with someone who actually knows the place. What's on board: - Capacity for up to 12 guests - Mandatory crew included with every booking - Life jackets provided - Water toys...
