About this boat

This Valkvlet is a well-kept and solidly built yacht. It is a godsend for lovers of cruising and the accompanying romance of life along rivers and canals. The yacht has always been well cared for and that shows. This yacht has an inside and outside steering position so you choose according to the weather conditions how you want to enjoy the water. Outside is a bimini and windshield. The blue chairs add a romantic twist. At the back of the deck is a storage area for mooring lines and e.g. folding bikes. The yacht has a classic look with her stately green hull, cable fender and the bright superstructure in which the wooden sliding doors provide a contrasting detail. These doors are super practical while sailing....
