About this boat

Really a nice sailing ship with many sailing possibilities inside and outside the Netherlands, because of the depth of the keel, so a large sailing ar The Bries is a classic polyester sailing ship designed and manufactured by E.G. van de Stadt in the years 1968-1972. The Bries is known for its seaworthiness and for its idiosyncratic superstructure, which is high and has relatively straight lines, does not appeal to everyone, but that high superstructure gives a lot of comfort and provides a spacious saloon with a headroom of over 180. She is suitable for sailing vacations and days out, has a reputation of a stable and reliable tour sailor. Designed for coastal waters, IJsselmeer, Wadden Sea and even the North S...
