About this boat

The stylish and robust design of the Vanquish VQ43 is sure to attract all the right attention. Even at anchor she radiates a dynamic energy and – once unleashed from her moorings – the Vanquish VQ43 cuts through the water like a Swiss army knife. The smartly designed underwater body combined with her aluminium construction ensure a superior performance and optimal sailing pleasure. This is most noticeable when you reach high speeds of over 35 knots and the sports boat still has minimal spray.
