About this boat

Well-maintained and ready to sail, this classic Westerly Griffon II "Meme" is a solid, spacious cruiser perfect for coastal adventures or relaxed Mediterranean sailing. "Meme" started life in the UK and was sailed from Dartmouth to Denia (Spain) in 2008. Since 2017 she has been based in Campomanes (Greenwich) Marina near Altea, Spain. She has been regularly serviced & hauled out for cleaning and antifouling, and remains mechanically sound and reliable. She's in good overall condition, but does need some cosmetic attention. A reliable and comfortable cruising yacht with a great inventory, ideal for anyone looking to get on the water immediately without major investment. Available with a mooring.
